

The AgriFood Charities Partnership (AFCP) is an independent organisation promoting and supporting the development of talent in the agrifood industry, alongside research which addresses practical agrifood challenges. www.afcp.org.uk

We are grateful to the following AFCP members who are financially supporting the Agricultural Universities Council UK's Food & Farming Summer School 2025.

The Chadacre Agricultural Trust advances the education of the public in all aspects of agriculture and farming by providing grants for training and research. Grants can be awarded to: students of entering the industry; enable farmers and others to acquire relevant new skills; aid the education of the general public; agricultural research leading to practical benefits to farmers. Funding is primarily focussed on Suffolk, Norfolk, Cambridgeshire or Essex. www.chadacre-trust.org.uk

The Clan Trust is a Norfolk-based charity supporting young people in agriculture, scientific advancement in agriculture, and outreach for the elderly in the community. The Trust exists to manage to legacy of the late Robert W Alston Esq who bestowed his estate in Trust to support these core causes. www.clantrust.org

The Dartington Cattle Breeding Trust (DCBT) is a charitable trust (based in Devon & Cornwall) with the objectives of improving the quality and health of livestock in Great Britain for the benefit of the public. Grants are awarded via educational bursaries, capital grants, research, vocational training, community funding, YFC travel scholarships and Nuffield scholarships www.dcbt.co.uk

The Douglas Bomford Trust's mission is: "To provide resources to help advance the knowledge, understanding, practice and competence in the application of engineering and technology to achieve sustainable agricultural, food, and biological systems, for the benefit of the environment and mankind and with a link to the UK." www.dbt.org.uk

The Farmers Club Charitable Trust offers a variety of bursaries and awards to a wide range of awardees from within the food, farming and associated industries.

There are three themes currently in place: -

- Agricultural Educator Awards
- Snapshot Studies
- Agricultural Leadership (Windsor Leadership Training Programmes / Professional Forum / #AgriLeadershipWeek.

A valued resource bank of reports and video are available from www.tfcct.co.uk

In 1909, Felix Thornley Cobbold, of Ipswich, bequeathed lands and funding for smallholdings and allotments in Suffolk to provide a degree of self-sufficiency for the rural poor. Over time the Trustees have adjusted the charity's objectives to provide grants in excess of £100,000 a year for agricultural research and education. www.felixcobboldtrust.org.uk

Harper Adams University

The Harper Adams University Development Trust supports the mission of Harper through the provision of scholarships and investment in University infrastructure and buildings. Harper Adams University, located in Shropshire, UK, specialises in agriculture, animal sciences, engineering, food production, and sustainable business. Renowned for its practical, hands-on approach to education, it offers undergraduate and postgraduate courses, fostering innovation and research. The university is committed to addressing global food security and sustainability challenges. www.harper-adams.ac.uk/work-with-us/development-trust

The Morley Agricultural Foundation is a charity that supports farming in the East of England by funding agricultural research, student studies, professional development of farmers and others and a variety of educational projects for school age children. www.tmaf.co.uk

THE MORLEY
AGRICULTURAL FOUNDATION

Perry Foundation is a registered UK Charity with the objectives of promoting education and research connected with agriculture or food production for the benefit of the public. Our income is derived from endowment investments mainly used to fund postgraduate PhD studentships intended to be of benefit to UK agriculture